County Superintendent of Schools, Prof. S. V. Kimberland, Calls Attention of the Patrons of the Provisions of Law

NO CHANGE IN THE LAW

Children of School Age May Attend School If They Can Show Scar, But They Should Be Examined to Learn If Revaccination Is Necessary

With the opening of school only a few weeks away, County Superintendent S. V. Kimberland desires to call the attention of the parents of the pupils, the members of the Boards of Education, the members of the Boards of Health, and the teachers of the public schools, to the matter of vaccination and the state regulations relative to revaccination of pupils unsuccessfully inoculated.

Dr. W. D. Martin, of Dunns Station, County Medical Director, has been notified by the State Secretary of Health, Dr. Charles H. Moner, that the following county physicians have been appointed as official deputies to re-vaccinate free of charge, school children who have undergone two or more unsuccessful attempts at vaccination against smallpox. The appointees are: J. N. Sprowls, Claysville; W. L. Scott, Racoon; J. W. Hunter, Charleroi; W. C. Martin, Calloway; C. L. Harsba, Canonsburg; Edwin M. Ellis, Ellsworth; C. T. A. Dodd, Washington, R. D. 6; William Keck, Vestaburg.

The vaccination law requiring that children must produce evidence of successful vaccination for admittance to school has not been changed. Any child of school age may attend school if it has the scar of vaccination, whether it has been vaccinated recently or at any time in the past, since starting to school.

Teachers in the schools should have their cicatrix, or scar, examined by some properly licensed physician to learn if they should be re-vaccinated. Teachers should run no risk or take any chance in the matter of vaccination. As cold weather approaches the dangers of smallpox increase. Washington county is in the danger zone at the present time, since reports show that the Pittsburgh district has more cases of smallpox than any other section of the country. Every precaution should be taken to keep the schools free from the contagion. Teachers are urged to enforce, and see that others enforce, the provisions of the school code relative to disease and its control.

Teachers or school principals are not allowed to admit children to school unless they present, or have already filed a certificate of successful vaccination, or in the case of unsuccessful results the official temporary certificate, which must have been issued since June, at which time temporary certificates issued during

HOMEWARD LAP OF FLYERS IS EXPECTED

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 16.—The world's first flying expedition is expected to start today when Lieut. Lowell Smith and Lieut. Eric Nelson take the air en route to a base 20 miles north of Angmagalik, Greenland.

The new base for the flyers was found by Lieut. Schultze, reconnoitering expert for the flying expedition. It will do away with the flyers having to battle the ice packs when surround the bay of Angmagalik.

The two American airmen were expected to wing away Friday but their flight was stopped when Lieut. Schultze cabled of finding the new base. He spent the day in establishing mooring buoys and moving provisions from the Danish steamer, Gertrude Rask.

Only reports of bad weather between here and Iceland will prevent the flyers from getting away today.

"Fighting Tenth" Are Meeting In Reunion In Monongahela City

The previous school term become void. The county medical director has pointed out the fact that school teachers must be careful in demanding proper vaccination certificates. A certificate stating that a child has been vaccinated is not sufficient. The vaccination physician must certify that an examination of the child made not less than eight days after vaccination disclosed a vaccination scar, or cicatrix, indicating a successful vaccination. If this vaccination cicatrix is not in evidence, the physician cannot legally certify, and the child must be re-vaccinated.

The supreme court has ruled that it is obligatory to use the vaccination certificate forms prescribed by the state department of health. These forms are furnished free of charge to all physicians practicing in the second class townships, and any other form cannot legally be accepted by the teacher or principal.

Citing the law, it is also explained that teachers may not accept certificates issued by the family physician, or school medical inspectors exempting pupils from vaccination because of alleged physical disability. Cases of actual physical disability for vaccination are rare, it is said. Generally speaking, any child that is well enough to go to school is held a fit subject for vaccination. If physical disability is claimed, such cases must be passed upon by the county medical director or one of the deputies.

School medical directors are directed by the secretary of health to verify the existence of the required vaccination cicatrix and pass upon the validity of vaccination certificates filed.

Pope To Have Prelate At Holy Name Meet

New York, August 16.—The Very Rev. Michael J. Rippe, O. P. P. G., National Director of the Holy Name Society, today made public a message which he had received from Gasparri, Papal Secretary of State, in which his Eminence said that Pope Pius XI will send a special pontifical communication to the Holy Name Convention to be held in Washington 18th to 21st of next month. This message will most likely be presented to the convention by a prelate specially delegated.

"The Pope is very much impressed with the work of the Holy Name Society, and sees in it the consummation of the hopes which he has placed in this organization," the Papal Secretary of State writes. "Particularly gratifying to the august Pontiff are the many public manifestations of faith in the doctrine of the Divinity of our Blessed Lord due directly to their zeal."

GROOM OF A WEEK IN SEARCH FOR HIS BRIDE

Pittsburgh, Aug. 16.—Herbert M. Cooley left McKeesport for Erie and Northwestern parts of the state today to continue the search for his missing bride, who left him six days ago.

Cooley still clung to the amnesia theory, scoffing at the idea of anything that might link his wife with that of a former Allegheny College football star. Cooley admitted that his bride had once been engaged to an Ohio man, but it had been broken off by mutual agreement.

"I don't believe that she is dead," Cooley said. "Alicia was an impulsive girl, but a hard worker and I believe that she is just the victim of amnesia, maybe wandering about, but more than likely working at something with her mind in a haze."

Cooley denied there had been any quarrel, and also denied getting a note from the girl before she left him.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS NEAR IN CHICAGO MURDER CASE

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, Aug. 16.—With only two more witnesses left to testify, the Leopold-Loeb hearing today neared a close. State's Attorney Crowe expects the closing arguments to start Tuesday.

Dr. Harold D. Singer, state alienist, took the stand today for a cross examination by Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney. Darrow expects to finish with the doctor at today's short session.

Monday the state will call its fourth and last alienist, Dr. W. H. Krohn. Crowe said the state would finish with him by noon and Darrow believes the defense can conclude its cross examination before the end of the court day.

Crowe said he would not place lay witnesses on the stand, unless his men can locate Miss Marion Doctor, who refused to answer a subpoena by the state and for whom Chief Justice John R. Caverly, hearing the case, issued an attachment. He said and Nathan Leopold were together several times after Leopold and Richard Loeb killed Robert Franks. There is little likelihood of locating the girl, Crowe admitted.

THE TITLE LAW IS EFFECTIVE

Harrisburg, August 16.—The automobile title law of 1923 has aided in the recovery of stolen automobiles during the present year to a marked degree, according to Benjamin E. Eynon, registrar of the State Highway department.

In a statement today, Eynon said, "There is no question but that the operation of the title law in Pennsylvania has had a very material effect on the number of recoveries. Without the presence of a title for a motor vehicle, the thief is prohibited to dispose of it in this state unless of course he sells it to some person with whom he is associated and his only recourse is to take it to some other state."

During the first six months of this year 7,916 thefts of motor cars were reported and 3,135 cars were recovered and during the same period of last year, 7,879 thefts and 1,159 recoveries.

Although the Title law became effective last November it did no chance to function until the year 1924 began.

Jersey Field Day Monday At Brownsville

The Jersey breeders of Washington and surrounding counties are expecting a large crowd at their field day and picnic at the W. J. Stewart farm.

Plans have been completed for the entertainment of all who wish to attend. Ample, well-kept grounds surround the modern Stewart home. The basket picnic lunch will be eaten in family groups under shade trees on the lawn. The speaking program will also take place under the trees about the home.

The forenoon will be given over to inspection of the Stewart herd and buildings. A short judging contest will be conducted by W. C. Randolph, fieldman for the A. J. C. C. Coffee and Jersey cream will be served to all at noon.

Speakers for the afternoon include Prof. E. L. Anthony, Morgan town, W. Va., who has just recently returned from an extensive tour of the dairy centers of Europe and will have an interesting and instructive message. S. J. Brownell of State College and W. C. Randolph will also speak. The remainder of the day will be spent in getting acquainted and in games and contests including "barnyard golf." The Jersey men have planned this meeting not only for Jersey breeders but for the general dairyman as well and all who are interested are urged to bring their families and join in this outing.

BURGESS TUSSING REPORTS ON DRIVE

PRESIDENT IS RESTING ON FATHER'S FARM

Timonium, Md., Aug. 16.—Irene, daughter of President Coolidge, was happy to be free from the cares of state for a while. President Coolidge arrived "back home" today to enjoy a 12-day vacation on his father's farm. It is his first real vacation since he left here for the White House just one year and 12 days ago.

He has allotted himself less time for his relaxation, members of his party pointed out, than the government gives to the lowest clerk in its employ. The presidential special which brought the president, Mrs. Coolidge and their son John, from Washington arrived at Ludlow, the nearest railroad station to Plymouth, about 3 o'clock this morning. The family and accompanying party, however, did not arise, until a more reasonable hour and then were driven here in one of the White House limousines which had been sent up in advance.

Sales Manager For Hospital Campaign Turns Over Completed Work of Large Organization of Which He Was the Head

THE FUND IS NOW $208,202

"Hard Work of Loyal Men and Women Made Possible New Building For Hospital to Serve Community," Declares J. B. Tussing

The active work on behalf of the hospital campaign building fund was officially closed yesterday afternoon when Sales Manager, Burgess J. B. Tussing, acting for Chairman Kerfoot W. Daly, turned over to President John B. Schafer of the board of directors of the hospital a voluminous report covering all important statistical phases of the campaign.

An interesting feature as announced by Manager Tussing is that the total subscriptions to date amount to $208,202. He stated that more subscriptions were expected within a short time and that in the fall there was hopes that several corporations would come forward with substantial subscriptions to greatly increase the amount of the building fund.

Manager Tussing said that the auditors from each of the banks had gone over the reports and verified the subscriptions and bills, and everything was satisfactory.

The report shows that 123 persons subscribed $1, 50 subscribed $2, 301 subscribed $10, 229 subscribed $15, 34 subscribed $20, 53 subscribed $50, 396 subscribed $100, 20 subscribed $125, 20 subscribed $150, 39 subscribed $200, 57 subscribed $250, 10 subscribed $300, 59 subscribed $500, 30 subscribed $1,000, one subscribed $1,500, four subscribed $2,500, one subscribed $3,350, one subscribed $5,000, one subscribed $6,516.

Manager Tussing also stated that in the absence of Chairman Daly, who had gone on a motor trip to Maine, a final issue of the campaign paper, "Go-Get-Em," had been mailed to all of the workers of the organization. This publication gives survey of the work done by each of the teams, a complete roster of the active salesmen in the organization, and a list of all the honor salesmen.

"I want this opportunity of again thanking those men and women who worked so loyally and willingly throughout the hot days of the intensive campaign to bring victory in the hospital drive for a building fund," declared Manager Tussing, who has himself been one of the most conspicuous leaders and most active dependent. DEATH AND HURTS BY AN EXPLOSION

Camden, N. J., Aug. 16.—A 12-year-old girl is dead, four men are in hospitals and a score of other persons are suffering from minor injuries today as the result of premature explosion of a cannon being used in celebration of the Feast of the Assumption here last night.

The cannon, used near the end of a fireworks display, burst in a shower of metal, with shrapnel effect over a crowd of 5,000 who had gathered at a public playground for the celebration.

Myrtle Farrell, 12, was struck in the head by a flying piece of metal and instantly killed. The seriously injured are Andrew Cercolo, Edward Spiser, Rocko Angelastro, and Joe Colloto. All were struck by flying fragments from the cannon.

SCHOOL PICNIC ON AUGUST 23

The sixth annual reunion and community picnic of the Deems school will be held at the Deems Park, West Pike Run township, Saturday, August 23. Music and races will be the features of the afternoon.

Formerly, a dinner has been served by the committee at noon, but this year it is planned that each family bring their baskets and dinner will be eaten in picnic style. Also invitations have been sent to each teacher and pupil and to the families of the community in former years, but invitations will not be sent out this year. However, a cordial invitation is extended to all as this reunion is for the community, as well as teachers and pupils. Ice cream, sandwiches, pop and other refreshments will be sold at the stand. Come and enjoy yourself.

DRASTIC ACTION IS TAKEN

Contempt of court proceedings for violation of a court order in which an injunction against the sale of liquor in two hotels was violated, began today against Thos. McDonough, Lena Redman and Emil Redman, proprietors of the Washington hotel, and Frank Haid and George E. Young, proprietors of the Howard hotel of New Kensington.

The action is without parallel in the Washington county courts and was the result of a raid conducted last Saturday by state police when it was alleged whiskey was found in both hotels. Today District Attorney Nevins A. Cort went before Judge Whittemore and asked that a rule be granted upon the defendants to show cause why an attachment for contempt should not be issued. The rule was made returnable according to the report of the court at 9 o'clock August 20.

The case dates back to June 3, 1924, when the District Attorney of this county and the Attorney General of the State filed a bill in equity asking that a preliminary injunction be granted restraining the hotels, Mr. Tennyson, who is a well known justice of the peace of that section, and his family escaped is remarkable. They were thrown from their beds, stunned by the explosion, but not hurt. They, however, were much unnerved by the experience through which they had passed. Officers working on the case were non-committal as to what they had learned after working all day yesterday. There were rumors about Sloan yesterday of this or that one being suspected. It was said that the officers have some clues, but as no arrests were made they apparently have nothing that would warrant taking anyone into custody. Whoever placed the dynamite in an outside cellarway of the Tennyson home did so out of revenge against the justice. It is believed that at last 100 pounds of dynamite were exploded. It was set off, it is believed, by a stick of dynamite found on the Tennyson lot, one that had evidently been dropped. Mr. Tennyson, his wife, a son and daughter were asleep on the second floor front of the home. They were blown from their beds and miraculously escaped without injuries. The home all about them was left in ruins. They were only able to get out by climbing through an open window and over a porch.

NO ARRESTS MADE IN DYNAMITING CASE

No arrest had been made up to late last night in the dynamiting of the Henry Tennyson home, at Sloan, Smith township, which blast was of such force that it almost wrecked the entire community located on the Bhrgettstown-Hickory road a short distance south of Burgettstown.

Chief County Detective W. B. Dinsmore said it was the worst explosion of its kind he had ever seen. It was one of the boldest attempts to wreck a home and wipe out a family. The case dates back to June 3, 1924, when the District Attorney of this county and the Attorney General of the State filed a bill in equity asking that a preliminary injunction be granted restraining the hotels, Mr. Tennyson, who is a well known justice of the peace of that section, and his family escaped is remarkable. RECAPITULATION.

Charleroi, and this community, inclusive of the towns which will be benefited, have formally put over the hospital drive, albeit subscriptions are coming in which may swell the total to the coveted goal of $250,000.

The achievements of the people responsible for the success of the drive were not accomplished without the dust of labor. While they doubtless enjoy a respite from the hard work incident thereto, the fact remains that the project for the new hospital securing has but just begun. It will be well for the promoters and prime workers in the movement not to lose sight of this fact.

In recapitulation it may be said that the year of 1924 will be one of achievement for Charleroi. Council has established the White Way system; it has its Borough Planning Commission and the Chamber of Commerce to aid and assist in further promoting the interests of the borough. A number of streets and sewers have been fixed, and new ones are to be installed as well as sidewalks laid. Public-spirited men have purchased ground on which homes for the people are to be erected; the ground has been surveyed, but not as yet laid out in lots, but the acreage is there for a Greater Charleroi. Roads leading into the borough as municipality feeders are, and have been improved; new buildings have been and will be constructed, and altogether the recapitulation of the year's progress thus far has been most pleasing and encouraging.

The thing for us all to do, is to continue to labor together in that spirit of amity and harmony which bespeaks not only a bigger and better Charleroi, but a bigger and better community. As the towns and the country around us improve, in like measure will Charleroi improve. The ball of civic and community progress never gets so large but that the people can roll it, and it is the duty of each and all to put their shoulder to the wheel and make of opportunities apparent and those that may come to the surface, all that is possible to accomplish.

In the past three years, according to the figures of producers, the number of speaking theatres has decreased by two-thirds. Such are the results of the competition of the cheaper "silent drama." But even the movie producers are complaining, and no wonder, in view of the countless number of film houses and the changeless themes and wearisome repetitions so largely presented in them.

ON THE GIANTS

After the Giants had dropped a curtain of dense gloom upon 24,000 people who filled the stands at Forbes Field yesterday, General William Boyd McKechnie's gallivanting warriors tore loose with a massacre which took the big crowd by storm, and amid the wildest kind of screaming the Pirates put the world's champions to rout and won by a count of 6 to 4. This leaves Pittsburgh just four games from first place and sends the pennant hopes of Western Pennsylvania to the Pirates.

In addition to bringing the flag chase nearer to a nose-and-nose affair than it has been all year, the bold Buccaneers surpassed their season's record for consecutive victories, by hanging up their eighth straight. Out of their last 22 contests they now have topped 19 and are fighting pluckily to extend this sensational winning streak. They have smitten the McGrawites for three plumes in a row and apparently have knocked the morale of the league leaders into a cocked hat.

PENNANT VISIONS
FOR THE PIRATES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 16.—Visions of the National League pennant and subsequent world series hung before the fast going Pirates today as they prepared to battle the Giants for the final game of the series.

Having won eight straight games, four of these of the league leading Giants, the Pirates will fight desperately to win today's contest and reduce the New Yorkers' lead by three games. The Pirates have won 19 of their last 23 games.

Just who will pitch today was undecided this morning. Manager McKechnie of the Pirates indicated he may use Yde or Pfeffer, while McGraw will probably pick from Dean, Bentley or Watson.

Over 28,000 fans will jam Forbes Field today and all seats have been reserved. General admission seats mean standing room only.

Hazen Cuyler, whose consistent hitting had been a sensation this year, was yesterday's star, hitting a home run in the third inning with two men on bases, tying the score.

I one of the greatest scraps ever witnessed in Braddock, Cuddy DeMarco, the shiek of Charleroi, gained the decision, after 10 rounds of hard milling, over Dick Conlon of Altoona. The battle was full of action and rapid-fire milling. The Altoona flash was the aggressor many times during the scrap and Cuddy was forced to extend himself to the limit to win the honors. These lightweight started out at a fast clip, with DeMarco taking the initial round. Dick came back strong in second stanza and evened things up with a hard attack to the head and body. From the second round on until to eighth, DeMarco held a slight edge by using a fast left jab and a right cross to the jaw, but Conlon showed lots of fight and carried the Charleroi scrapper off his feet with his fast work.

DeMarco did his best work in the last two rounds, when he had Conlon backing away and taking a lot of punishment, and the two last rounds were productive in getting the Charleroi mixer the decision. Conlon was backing from a bad cut over the eye from the second round up to finish of the mill, but that did not stop the Altoona mixer from putting up one of the best battles of his career and DeMarco had to show everything he had in order to get the decision from both judges, who agreed on each verdict.

workers in helping to raise the money for the hospital.

"Both Mr. Daly and myself feel that the entire credit for making a success of the campaign belongs to the workers, and when the hospital is built I hope that some way will be found to permanently memorialize the public spirit of those men and women who left their business and served without compensation to the end that this great humanitarian and civic opportunity to get a hospital might succeed. The borough of Charleroi and the entire community in this hospital drive owe an everlasting debt of gratitude to these self-sacrificing men and women."

The hospital campaign headquarters in Borough building have been closed. The work of finishing up the odds and ends of the campaign has been completed and the campaign directors left today for home.

M. P. Neighbor, director of the campaign, who lives at Altoona, Pa., left this morning, motoring home and in two or three days will start for Seattle, Washington, via Los Angeles, thence up the coast to spend his vacation visiting his mother, W. J. Gaef, associate in organizing and directing the campaign, has returned to his home in Harrisburg, but his plans for the summer were not learned.

President John B. Schafer, of the Hospital board, stated this morning that the notices for the first payment on the subscriptions were practically complete and would be mailed August 22, calling attention to the first payment on the subscriptions due September 1.

THE MAJESTIC

Heralded as "the greatest historical classic on the screen," with romance and adventure garbed in the colorful atmosphere of the Twelfth century, "Richard the Lion-Hearted," an Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release, will open at the Majestic theatre on Monday. It will be pictured two days.

Based on "The Talisman," Sir Walter Scott's story so familiar to book lovers the world over, "Richard the Lion-Hearted" has a two-point appeal. For those who seek entertainment alone, it unfolds a story of compelling interest, in lavish settings, that are a source of constant delight. For students of history or literature, it is a faithful representation of the life of the period in which it is laid. In its many beautiful scenes there is a wealth of antiques for which the museums of two continents were drawn upon.

The great King Richard's Third Crusade, by which he sought to recover the Holy Land and the Holy Sepulchre from the Saracens was absorbing story has been transferred to the silver sheet with remarkable success. With its spirited clashes between the Crusaders and the Saracens, hordes, thrilling hand to hand combat, brilliant swordsmanship, romance, intrigue—all in settings of the almost pagan splendor—"Richard, the Lion-Hearted" is truly a most impressive picture.

In the semi-final of eight rounds Young Saylor of Charleroi gave K. O. Ferry of McKeesport a boxing lesson, doing everything to the Tube City mixer but knock him out. This was the only slow bout on the card, as the Charleroi boxer was so much superior to the K. O. kid that the bout was very onesided and the fans were glad when the bell rang to end the onesided contest. Both judges agreed on Saylor without a murmur.

The lid-lifter brought together Tommy Crowley of the South Side and Young Dune of Charleroi, a pair of bantams. Dune fought a good battle but was slow in leading and the decision went to Crowley.

was an outstanding feature of "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood," climbs to even greater dramatic heights in his portrayal of the same role in this new picture, for "Richard, the Lion-Hearted" bridges the gap in "Robin Hood" from the time Richard left England until his return. His characterization is one of convincing reality, for he has interpreted it intelligently and given it fine touches of comedy.

SOLVING OF THE PEACE PROBLEM IS AT HAND

London, Aug. 16.—The end of the long struggle to solve reparations problem growing out of the peace of Versailles is at hand.

Barring an eleventh-hour hitch, the conference on application of the Dawes report will meet in plenary session at 6:30 o'clock this evening to sign in part the initial protocols providing the basis of and machinery for payment of Germany's war penalties.

Announcement of the plenary session was made after the German representatives had capitulated and accepted Premier Heriot's French proposal that evacuation of the Ruhr occur within one year.

With signatures of initials affixed to the several protocols, the conference will have officially completed its task. There will then remain legislation of approval to be passed by the parliaments of the allied powers and Germany—and the reparations question which has been the issue of many cabinet and has resulted in the fall of not a few, will have been definitely disposed of.

Copper in Cosmetics

Women of an earlier age who applied cosmetics to their faces not only put on "war paint," but literally buckled on armor. Copper was an essential ingredient of the cosmetics of those days. Long before copper as a metal was known crude copper was used as an ingredient of the cosmetics with which the women painted their faces.—Detroit News.

Name Came From Italy

The name "Tivoli" as applied to theaters at the present time is undoubtedly connected with Tivoli, an ancient town of Italy, which was a well-known pleasure resort near Rome. The name of the ancient city was pronounced Tee-ro-lee. The pronunciation in the United States, however, as of the town of this name in New York, is Tiv-o-li.

A Thing Well Done

Whether thy work be fine or coarse, planting corn or writing epics, so only it be honest work, done to thine own approbation, it shall earn a reward to the senses as well as to the thought, no matter how often defeated, you are born to victory. The reward of a thing well done is to have done it.—Emerson.

Fight Despondency

Despondency is as fatal in a hospital as the use of the wrong anesthetic. A cheerful patient, it is always insisted, is half cured. This explains the advice in one hospital, "Remember the steam kettle. It is always up to its neck in hot water, but it still continues to sing."

Cutting Wall Paper

One of the most tedious tasks in wallpapering a room is to trim the wallpaper edges. If you hold the paper so that the light from a window or lamp will shine through from the other side you can easily follow the straight edge of the pattern with your shears.—Popular Science Monthly.

Original "Uncle Sam"
Citizen of Troy, N. Y.

Uncle Sam, of the long white hair, striped trousers and starred waistcoat, who stands for the United States in cartoons, was originally a real person, a citizen of Troy, N. Y., about a hundred years ago. The way the term came to be applied to the United States government happened in this manner:

Shortly after the War of 1812, Elbert Anderson of New York, who was a contractor of the army, went to Troy to purchase some provisions. It was Anderson's habit to stamp all boxes containing the goods with his initials and those of the United States, so that on the end of each box sent out were the letters E. A. and U. S. Coupon No. $

Before each box went out it had to be inspected, and one of the inspectors was an old man, popular among his associates for his wit and good humor, named Samuel Wilson. Around the inspecting rooms he was known as "Uncle Sam." One time a new man in the office asked an employee what the letters on the boxes, E. A. and U. S., stood for. The man, thinking to tease Uncle Sam a bit, answered: "E. A. for Elbert Anderson, who contracts for the supplies, and U. S. for Uncle Sam, who inspects them."

The joke spread, and before long the letters U. S. became generally applied to the name Uncle Sam. When cartoonists, looking for a popular figure to impersonate the United States, heard the tale, they used the characteristic Uncle Sam of the inspecting room, dressed in flag-like clothes.

Why African Natives Slay Twins at Birth

The other day a paragraph appeared in the Mail describing the murder of native twins in South Africa. The untutored man must read this with horror, and rightly too, though I doubt if he ever thinks of the tribal laws and customs underlying such a seemingly horrible practice—customs which the native had observed for thousands of years before the coming of the white man with his new ideas.

Unfortunately Europeans so often try to teach the native mind too quickly. They expect him to break suddenly from his time-old traditions and embrace immediately altogether different morals and ideas. They are surprised when he occasionally returns to his barbaric creed, instead of marveling that such lapses are so rare. That they are so rare is a big tribute to the trust and understanding existing between black and white. For all these, to our mind, terrible customs were originally intended only for the good of the race.

From time immemorial, twins have been regarded with horror by most, if not all—savage tribes. I have tried to trace the basis of this belief in many parts of Africa, and the nearest I could come to it was this:

When a woman gives birth she is believed to produce one soul. If, by some terrible misfortune, that soul should be divided, what chance can it have in this world or the next?—Molly Torm in the Continental edition of the London Mail.

Immortal Marathon

Marathon is justly considered one of the decisive battles of the world. It broke the spell of Persian invincibility, which had previously paralyzed men's minds. It secured for mankind the intellectual treasures of Athens, the growth of free institutions, the liberal enlightenment of the western world, and the gradual ascendancy for many ages of the great principles of European civilization.

The Constitution

A quiet company of gentlemen sitting through a dull summer in the city of Philadelphia worked out for a poor and rural nation an immortal constitution, which has made statesmen all over the world feel confidence in the political future of the race. They knew that human liberty was a feasible basis of government.—Woodrow Wilson, in "Robert E. Lee"
